FROM THE ISLAND EXCHANGES

THINKS THAT HONOLULU PAPERS DID IT!

Poor old Jeff McCann! He was smitten with the same hand which welcomed him. Both the Honolulu daily papers smeared columns telling what a great man he was when he first arrived and now they both excitedly declare that he was fired from his job because his resignation was accepted in Washington. He made the mistake of believing all the stuff that was printed about him the first two weeks he was in Hawaii. Now Jeff's feelings must be a good deal like the early day natives who so hospitably received gospel vendors to have their lands taken away in exchange for Bible tracts. However, there is promise that Jeff's coming and going will not be altogether in vain—hereafter the Honolulu dailies may not try to cram the merits of an unknown down their readers' throats until the newcomer has had a chance to make good.—Hilo Tribune.

Honolulu is setting an excellent example these days of how county government should not be handled. The plan of creating as many jobs as possible and of splitting up the authority in proportion, is the thing that all American communities are getting away from as fast as possible. It has been tested for a century and it doesn't work.—Maui News.

The record of not a single drunk at the New Year's races while at the same time there was no restriction on the sale of liquor, should have much significance. People of Hawaii, as elsewhere, are simply getting out of the habit of drinking as they used to drink. As a Maui liquor dealer puts it—the liquor business is dying a natural death.—Maui News.

Unwarranted
The Advertiser of Honolulu says that the administration is responsible for the deaths of Americans on board vessels torpedoed by German or Austrian submarines. Such an assertion is as unwarranted as it is untrue. President Wilson has the confidence and backing of the American people in the course he has taken in these matters. About the only other alternative that might be taken would be to plunge into the general carnival of slaughter going on in Europe, and America is not ready for that. Besides such an alternative is not in the province of the president. There is a good deal of loose talk these days that fortunately is not likely to do much harm, and certainly can do no good.—Maui News.

The Failure of the Ford Peace Mission
It is the unexpected that most frequently happens, but the expected does happen once in a while; witness the insane peace expedition of Henry Ford and his colleagues. Pitying smiles and derisive laughter was the party's send off from America and its welcome in Europe was as warm as a bath in the Arctic ocean.—Maui Weekly Times.

Uncle Sam's Mail
Interference with or obstruction of Uncle Sam's mail is one of the most serious offenses in the United States. A postmaster who opens or detains a letter intended for one of his patrons loses his job and is given a long term in prison. Bandits holding up a stage or a train and rifling the U. S. mail bags are generally given about a quarter of a life-time in prison. As we remarked, it is a most serious offense, an almost unpardonable sin—in America—and when committed by American citizens. But when Great Britain holds up a neutral vessel carrying the sacred United States mail and confiscates some three to four thousand pieces of mail matter, Uncle Sam only feels deeply hurt and sends a polite note of mild protestations to the British government.—Maui Weekly Times.

Hawaii and Prohibition.
There is excellent reason to believe that the time is not very far distant when the United States will be a saloonless nation. State after state is going into the dry column. Nineteen are already completely dry, and there is scarcely a commonwealth in the country which has not, under local option, a considerable portion of its territory from which liquor is barred. It seems most likely that very soon one or both of the great political parties will adopt a prohibition plank in its platform, and then the matter will be definitely a national issue, and then the end of King Booze's reign may be considered in sight.

Of course when this time comes, Hawaii will be included; but until that day, any attempt to force upon the Treasurer of the said City and County for any of the sums named herein, or parts thereof, upon having filed with him schedule of salaries fixed by law and other salaries, of donations named herein, of payrolls and accounts for materials and supplies for general expenses and permanent improvements accompanied by original vouchers and certified by the City and County Clerk as having been duly passed and allowed by the Board of Supervisors at any regular meeting or any special meeting called for the purpose of considering expenditures:

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that to make expenditures under this resolution, it shall be necessary that all salary lists, items covering donations, payrolls, accounts of general expenses and permanent improvements shall, before being presented to the Board of Supervisors, be passed upon by a Committee or Committees and by such Committee or Committees be reported to the Board of Supervisors with their recommendations, and sum found to be lawfully filed and payable may then be voted upon singly or collectively as convenient, on a call of the ayes and noes. In the event of any such Committee failing or neglecting to so pass any such matters or to make any recommendation in regard thereto, the Board may thereupon act.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that no liability under this resolution shall be incurred in any month in excess of the monthly pro-rata sums herein authorized.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that this Resolution shall take effect upon its approval.

Introduced by,

DANIEL LOGAN,
Supervisor.

Honolulu, January 6, 1916.

I hereby certify that this Resolution passed Second Reading as amended and was ordered to print the meeting held on Monday, January 10, 1916, on the following vote of the Board of Supervisors, to wit:

Ayes: Abia, Hollinger, Horner, Larsen, Logan, Shingle. Total 6.
Noes: None.
Absent and not voting: Arnold. Total 1.

E. BUFFANDEAU,
Deputy City and County Clerk.

6367-Jan. 10, 11, 12.

this territory a restriction that cannot be forced upon any state is wrong and contrary to the principles of American government. Reformers of all kinds, in their zeal, are generally willing to invoke the old Jesuitical axiom that the end justifies the means, and to make use of methods that they themselves would be the first to hold infeasible.—Maui News.

Chauffeurs who run down and either kill or injure pedestrians should, if the blame is not on the stricken, one for jumping in front of the car, be punished for manslaughter or malicious injury. The authorities in some countries see that the law is enforced in that manner but in Honolulu the other week a woman was killed by being run over and nobody even got slapped on the wrist for the "accident."—Hawaii Herald.

Why not hold a day's horse racing during the county fair time? Amateur races would be interesting and on the square. Maui has almost decided to adopt the idea, which originated in Hilo, and the Mauians will probably enjoy some horse races during their fair time.—Hawaii Herald.
